VOL. III. NO. 44.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

THE REALIZATION OF 1897.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The publication of a list of the eligibles for this year's Realization reveals the fact that of the 251 original subscribers, 97 take the risk of paying full forfeit. Of these 58 were entered as foals, and incur a $50 forfeit, while the remaining 39 were nominated as yearlings, which places their liability at $100 each. The sum paid by the 251 which have already been withdrawn amounts to $4,770, and this added to the money due on the day of the race from the eligibles, swells the total to $11,590. The Coney Island Jockey Club adds $10,000, so that the value of this year's Realization, without reckoning the additional $240 each for starters, will be $21,590. With ten contestants the race will be $10 short of $25,000. Some idea of the quality of the field may be gathered from the fact that among the 58 left in of the foal entries are George Kessler, Salvado, Scottish Chieftain, Hi Daddy and Challenger.

Among the thirty-nine entered as yearlings the most prominent are Bastion, Ogden, George H. Ketchum, Winged Foot, Dr. Sheppard, Arbuttle, The Friar and Rodermond. George H. Ketchum is an unknown quality so far as form on this side is concerned. Ineligible for any of the prominent stakes in England last year, he succeeded in adding a few of the minor races to his owner's credit, and it is significant that the latter repurchased him at an advance after he had been knocked down at auction to an English owner.

PRAISE FROM CALIFORNIA.

After commenting on hard times and DAILY RACING FORM's constant sticking to a high standard, the San Francisco Breeder & Sportsman says: "The editor of DAILY RACING FORM manufactured an article that every lover of racing in the country wanted and one that form students must have, with the result that he cleared off all his indebtedness and is now sailing in the clear water with the sun of prosperity smiling sweetly upon him. He is running his paper during the winter months, and in all probability at a considerable loss, as the form charts from several points are sent by a private wire direct to his office. The San Francisco charts are made by Henry Forsland, and the foot notes he sends Racing Form are simply unbeatable. The chart itself is the one published in the Breeder and Sportsman every racing day. And Brunell, as a prophet, is glorious. Though about 2,300 miles away, he figures as many winners as anybody in the land—and gives them to the patrons of his paper right along. Last Saturday there were seven races, and he gave five winners and the other two (Brametta and Salvation) ran second."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

DAILY RACING FORM isn't much of a believer in tips. It merely publishes selections daily because its clientele demands it. Those selections are merely ideas of what horses should win races in which they are entered. Wednesday's DAILY RACING FORM considered and printed its ideas of twelve races on bad tracks at Oakland and New Orleans. Over the twelve races thirty-four horses were chosen. Two of the thirty-four were scratched and thirty-two ran. Of the thirty-two eighteen were won one-two-three. Of the twelve firsts, nine won—four of six at Oakland and five of six at New Orleans.

Bromley & Co., the new Chicago stable, threatens to add Algol to its racing force. Charles Hughes, its director, is credited with an offer of $15,000 for the Darden & Cahn colt now doing well at Memphis. Algol's a good colt, but not as high of class as the newspaper sellers declare in their parade. He might not be the best of the Western crop of 1894, which raced. There's Aquinas. He's not a bad colt. Typhoon II, too, was not a turf villain. Neither was Dr. Catlett. And there are a few others.

As was suspected, the Californian mare Tampa was not used at Iron Hill, Md. The Tampa which won there is another mare of the same name. Thus another ringing story is "killed." Each one degrades the turf. Trainer Frank Starkey and the Californian mare Tampa are and have been at Stockton, Cal., since December 26, 1896.
